

Burnham, Somerset.

June 23 ¹⁸⁹₇

Dear Mr Garrison,

¹⁸⁹ Being here with an elderly Aunt & Cousin I have only just received Mr Clark's letter which I post at once in hope of your getting it to-morrow.
This route would really save you fatigue in the journey & show you very much of interest besides the companionship as I hope you will be able to manage it - Street is coming to Gastonbury that - you need not - hesitate to take the late train on Saturday if you wish to have the forenoon in London.

Ever yours most-affectionately

Henry Estlin,
